THE WEEKLY PAYMENT BILL

There is danger that the parliamentary one passed by the Senate and one ordered belp the enemies of this measure of juslice to defeat it.

The surest and simplest way to circummove to substitute the Senate bill for his own, and bring the question to a recordmaking vote.

Mr. Rice has fought splendidly for his bill in the Assembly, and could probably pass it. But the Senate is at heart hostile to the measure, and would permit it to

WOMEN INSPECTORS.

The movement for the appointment of women as inspectors in factories and other large establishments where their own sex is employed in great numbers has received another approbation which is timely and worthy. The Central Labor Union, in a meeting yesterday afternoon passed resolutions earnestly demanding the passage of the Fassett Female Factory Inspectors bill in its original form.

The Union deprecated the Senate amendment which conferred the appointing of those women inspectors upon the Chief Factory Inspector.

In establishing this office, so needed and advantageous to workingwomen, it is to be hoped that the wishes of the labor people may be regarded, as they are the ones most interested. Hurry up the
